Pronouns Exercise

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate pronoun.

1. She has two children. ....................... of them dances well.

All

Each

Both

2. ....................... of us was invited to the party.

Neither

Both

Either

3. ......................... of them have gone to the park.

Both
Pronouns Exercise

Neither

Either

4. ......................... guest has arrived.

Every

All

Some

5. ......................... of them work hard.

All

Each

Every
6. ........................ of my children are married.

All
Each
Every

7. ........................ of these keys opens the door.

Neither
All
Both

8. ........................ my possessions are lost.

All
Whole
Pronouns Exercise

9. ....................... of these three doors open to the balcony.

10. He injured ......................... while hiking yesterday.

www.englishgrammar.org
Pronouns Exercise

11. Your need is greater than ................................

me

my mine

12. .......................... are brothers.

I and he

He and I

He and me

Answers

She has two children. Each of them dances well.
Neither of us was invited to the party.
Both of them have gone to the park.
Every guest has arrived.
All of them work hard.
Pronouns Exercise

All of my children are married.
Neither of these keys opens the door.
All my possessions are lost.
All of these three doors open to the balcony.
He injured himself while hiking yesterday.
Your need is greater than mine.
12. He and I are brothers.