Fill in the blanks with an appropriate pronoun.

1. __________________ jeered at the thief.
   - They
   - Them

2. There was no way for __________________ to escape.
   - they
   - them

3. Between you and __________________, I don’t trust him.
   - I
   - me
Pronouns Exercise

4. Give .................................. the keys.
   - I
   - me

5. I ....................................... cooked dinner.
   - me
   - myself

6. Suddenly an idea struck ..........................
   - he
   - him

7. .......................................... will bell the cat?
Pronouns Exercise

Who

Whom

8. The deer looked at __________________ reflection in the water.

it

its

it's

9. You could have killed __________________

you yourself

10. Prospero assured __________________ that

© www.englishgrammar.org
Pronouns Exercise

......................... ship was safely anchored.

them, there

they, their

them, their

11. She told ....................... that ......................... had passed the test.

I, me

me, I me, me

12. They accused ....................... of spoiling ......................... plans.

me, they Pronouns Exercise

me, their

I, their

Answers

1. They jeered at the thief.

2. There was no way for them to escape.

3. Between you and me, I don’t trust him.

4. Give me the keys.

5. I myself cooked dinner.

7. Who will bell the cat?

8. The deer looked at its reflection in the water.

9. You could have killed yourself.

10. Prospero assured them that their ship was safely anchored.

11. She told me that I had passed the test.
12. They accused me of spoiling their plans.