

Question tags exercise

Question tags are the small questions that often come at the ends of sentences in speech.

Add appropriate question tags to the following sentences.

1. You can sing well,

- can you
- can't you
- don't you

2. She came yesterday,

- hadn't she
- did she
- didn't she

3. Shut the door,

- will you
- won't you
- can't you
- All of the above

4. Let's have some tea,

- will we

Question tags exercise

shall we should we

5. She broke the glass,

did she didn't she hadn't she

6. He will come,

will he won't he can't he

7. He doesn't have many friends,
.....?

does he doesn't he do he

8. He seldom watches films,

does he

Question tags exercise

doesn't he

has he

9. I am free now, amn't I

aren't I am I

10. He is a doctor,

isn't he

is he

doesn't he

11. She is coming with us, is she isn't she hasn't she

12. We won't tolerate this,

will we

won't we

Question tags exercise

would we

13. I didn't expect this, ?

did I didn't I

don't I

14. He waited for an hour, ?

did he didn't he

don't he

Answers

1. You can sing well, can't you?
2. She came yesterday, didn't she?
3. Shut the door, won't you?
4. Let's have some tea, shall we?
5. She broke the glass, didn't she?

Question tags exercise

6. He will come, won't he?
7. He doesn't have many friends, does he?
8. He seldom watches films, does he?
9. I am free now, aren't I?
10. He is a doctor, isn't he?
11. She is coming with us, isn't she?
12. We won't tolerate this, will we?
13. I didn't expect this, did I?
14. He waited for an hour, didn't he?