

Question tags worksheet

Question tags are the small questions that come at the ends of sentences. They are mainly used in informal writing and speech. We use negative tags after affirmative sentences and non-negative tags after negative sentences.

Note that question tags are not used after questions.

Add appropriate question tags to the following sentences.

1. You don't work on Sundays,

don't you do you will you

2. They haven't forgotten us, ?

do they haven't they have they

3. There is little point in doing anything about it,
.....?

is there isn't there was there

Question tags worksheet

4. She didn't recognize him,?

- does she
- doesn't she
- did she
- didn't she

5. You passed the test,?

- do you
- don't you
- did you
- didn't you

6. They bought a new car last week,
.....?

- did they
- didn't they
- had they
- hadn't they

7. She wants to be a writer,?

- does she
- doesn't she

Question tags worksheet

has she hasn't she

8. They make a lot of money,?

do they don't they have they

9. No one helped him,?

do they did they didn't they

10. She knows the answer,?

does she doesn't she has she don't she

Question tags worksheet

Answers

1. You don't work on Sundays, do they?
2. They haven't forgotten us, have they?
3. There is little point in doing anything about it, is there?
4. She didn't recognize him, did she?
5. You passed the test, didn't you?
6. They bought a new car last week, didn't they?
7. She wants to be a writer, doesn't she?
8. They make a lot of money, don't they?
9. No one helped him, did they?
10. She knows the answer, doesn't she?