

Relative pronouns and adverbs

Complete the following sentences using an appropriate relative pronoun or adverb.

1. Jane is the woman keeps giant lizards in the garden shed.

who

that

Either could be used here

2. The person keeps giant lizards in the garden shed is Jane.

who

that

Either could be used here

3. Giant lizards are Jane keeps in the garden shed.

that

what

which

4. Jane keeps in the garden shed are

Relative pronouns and adverbs

giant lizards.

What

That

Which

5. The garden shed is the place Jane keeps giant lizards.

that

where

which

6. The place Jane keeps giant lizards is the garden shed.

that

where

which

7. The secretary is Mark is.

that

what

who

Relative pronouns and adverbs

8. Tuesday was the day I went to London to meet James.

when

that

Either could be used here

9. The day I went to London to meet James was Tuesday.

where

when

which

10. To meet James was the reason I went to London.

which

why

when

Answers

1. Jane is the woman who/that keeps giant lizards in the garden shed.

2. The person who/that keeps giant lizards in the garden shed is Jane.

Relative pronouns and adverbs

3. Giant lizards are what Jane keeps in the garden shed.
4. What Jane keeps in the garden shed are giant lizards.
5. The garden shed is the place where Jane keeps giant lizards.
6. The place where Jane keeps giant lizards is the garden shed.
7. The secretary is what Mark is.
8. Tuesday was the day when/that I went to London to meet James.
9. The day when I went to London to meet James was Tuesday.
10. To meet James was the reason why I went to London.