

Relative Pronouns Exercise

Fill in the blanks with appropriate relative pronouns.

1. The crow dropped the piece of cheese
..... the fox snapped up
immediately.

which
who
whom

2. People live in glass houses
must not throw stones.

who
that
Either could be used here

3. Last year we visited the Leaning Tower of Pisa
..... is a great architectural marvel.

that
which
Either could be used here

4. Where is the book I left here

Relative Pronouns Exercise

yesterday?

that

which

Either could be used here

5. It was a wretched hut she lived.

that

which

in which

6. Napoleon, the French admiral, was a great General.

which

whom

that

7. The boys gave a loud shout was heard across the park.

which

what

Either could be used here

Relative Pronouns Exercise

8. The conference was held at a Five Star hotel was a huge success.

which

that

Either could be used here

9. The boy spoke to the soldier arm was in a sling.

who

which

whose

10. The captain praised Martin, bowling was very good.

who

whose

whom

11. James, is my cousin, is a pilot.

who

whom

Relative Pronouns Exercise

that

12. That girl you see there sings very well.

whom

which

whose

Answers

1. The crow dropped the piece of cheese which the fox snapped up immediately.
2. People who / that live in glass houses must not throw stones.
3. Last year we visited the Leaning Tower of Pisa which is a great architectural marvel.
4. Where is the book that / which I left here yesterday?
5. It was a wretched hut in which she lived.
6. Napoleon, whom the French admire, was a great General.
7. The boys gave a loud shout which was heard across the park.
8. The conference that / which was held at a Five Star hotel was a huge success.
9. The boy spoke to the soldier whose arm was in a sling.
10. The captain praised Martin, whose bowling was very good.
11. James, who is my cousin, is a pilot.
12. That girl whom you see there sings very well.