Relative Pronouns Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. He works for a company ........................ produces animated movies.

that
who whom

2. Children ......................... parents control them all the time are less likely to grow into independent adults.

who whose who's

3. She wasn't amused by the jokes
Relative Pronouns Exercise

he told.

that

who

what

4. There were several applicants none of seemed good enough.

who

whom

which

5. She has written several novels none of

is worth reading.

whom
Relative Pronouns Exercise

6. The students ......................... failed the exam have to retake it.

7. You have to talk to the person ......................... is responsible for hiring.
Relative Pronouns Exercise

8. Why do you always blame me for everything .................. goes wrong?

that
which
who

9. Nothing ......................... she did for them seemed to satisfy them.

which
that
what

10. Are there any stores around here ......................... I can buy mushrooms?

where
Relative Pronouns Exercise

11. I just talked to the man ......................... who was sacked for being late to work.

12. The cricketer .......................... whose career was ruined by match fixing scandals has just published his autobiography.
Relative Pronouns Exercise

Answers

1. He works for a company that produces animated movies.

2. Children whose parents control them all the time are less likely to grow into independent adults.

3. She wasn’t amused by the jokes that he told.

4. There were several applicants none of whom seemed good enough.

5. She has written several novels none of which is worth reading.

6. The students who failed the exam have to retake it.

7. You have to talk to the person who is responsible for hiring.

8. Why do you always blame me for everything that goes wrong?

9. Nothing that she did for them seemed to satisfy them.

10. Are there any stores around here where I can buy mushrooms?

11. I just talked to the man who was sacked for being late to work.

12. The cricketer whose career was ruined by match fixing scandals has just published his autobiography.