

Sentence correction

Fill in the blanks.

1. The boy looked

pail
pale

2. Jack and Jill went up the hill to fetch a
..... of water.

pail
pale

3. He went to

London
the London

4. The children finished their homework.

have has

Sentence correction

5. The dog licked baby.

it's

its

6. raining.

Its

It's

7. Let's go train.

on

by

with

8. They the cake in the oven.

made

baked

9. The movie was disinteresting

uninteresting

Sentence correction

10. The man his wife to look after their children.

said

told told to

Answers

1. The boy looked pale. (Pale means feeble or weak.)
2. Jack and Jill went up the hill to fetch a pail of water. (Pail means a bucket.)
3. He went to London. (Proper nouns should begin with a capital letter.)
4. The children have finished their homework. (We use have with plural nouns and pronouns.)
5. The dog licked its baby. (Its is a possessive word.)
6. It's raining. (It's means it is or it has.)
7. Let's go by train. (The preposition is not used correctly.)
8. They baked the cake in the oven. (We bake cakes; the verb make is not appropriate here.)
9. The movie was uninteresting. (If something is not interesting, it is uninteresting.)
10. The man told his wife to look after their children. (The verb 'tell' does not take a preposition before its object.)