

Sentence Correction Exercise

You have to omit a word from each of the following sentences to make them grammatically correct. Identify that word.

1. Despite of having a headache, I enjoyed the movie.

of having a

2. If you will happen to see Jane, ask her to phone me.

will happen
to

3. Broadly to speaking, teachers are overworked and underpaid.

broadly
to

4. Sometimes people often behave strangely when they are abroad.

Sentence Correction Exercise

sometimes

often

when

Either sometimes or often

5. Although I admit that junk food is bad for health, but I don't think that it should be banned.

although

that but

Either although or but

6. Since the day was very hot therefore I didn't go out.

since

very

therefore

7. Because she wanted to win the first prize so she worked hard.

because

so

Either because or so

Sentence Correction Exercise

8. He is a man who dare to say what he thinks.

who dare
to

9. She is richer than compared to ninety percent of her neighbors.

than compared to
of

10. You need not to pay for that call.

not to
for

11. I can't make the dish washer to work.

make the
to

Sentence Correction Exercise

12. Most things seem to be made of from plastic these days.

most of from

Answers

1. Despite having a headache, I enjoyed the movie.
2. If you happen to see Jane, ask her to phone me.
3. Broadly speaking, teachers are overworked and underpaid.
4. Sometimes people behave strangely when they are abroad. / People often behave strangely when they are abroad.
5. Although I admit that junk food is bad for health, I don't think that it should be banned. / I admit that junk food is bad for health, but I don't think that it should be banned.
6. Since the day was hot I didn't go out.
7. She wanted to win the first prize so she worked hard. / Because she wanted to win the first prize she worked hard.
8. He is a man who dare say what he thinks.
9. She is richer than ninety percent of her neighbors.
10. You need not pay for that call.
11. I can't make the dish washer work.
12. Most things seem to be made of plastic these days.