

Simple, Complex vs. Compound

State whether the given sentence is a simple sentence, complex sentence or compound sentence.

1. She asked me what my problem was.

Simple

Complex

Compound

2. What he did shocked me.

Simple

Complex

Compound

3. Where have you been all this while?

Simple

Simple, Complex vs. Compound

Complex

Compound

4. The news came as a rude shock to me.

Simple

Complex

Compound

5. You will never get out of this.

Simple

Complex

Compound

Simple, Complex vs. Compound

6. Where she has gone is a mystery.

Simple

Complex

Compound

7. Despite being rich, he is not happy.

Simple

Complex

Compound

8. Although she is poor, she is quite generous.

Simple

Complex

Simple, Complex vs. Compound

Compound

9. I was surprised to hear that they had parted ways.

Simple

Complex

Compound

10. He neither spends his money nor invests it.

Simple

Complex

Compound

11. He works three jobs but does not earn much

Simple, Complex vs. Compound

money.

Simple

Complex

Compound

12. You can come with me or stay at home.

Simple

Complex

Compound

Answers

She asked me what my problem was. (Complex)

What he did shocked me. (Complex)

Simple, Complex vs. Compound

Where have you been all this while? (Simple)

The news came as a rude shock to me. (Simple)

You will never get out of this. (Simple)

Where she has gone is a mystery. (Complex)

Despite being rich, he is not happy. (Simple)

Although she is poor, she is quite generous. (Complex)

I was surprised to hear that they had parted ways. (Complex)

He neither spends his money nor invests it. (Compound)

He works three jobs but does not earn much money. (Compound)

You can come with me or stay at home. (Compound)