

Simple, Compound Or Complex

State whether the following sentences are simple, complex or compound.

1. We went out in spite of the rain.

Simple

Complex

Compound

2. Do you think she is ready?

Simple

Complex

Compound

3. I am anxious to contact him.

Simple

Complex

Compound

4. I noticed that he seemed to be drinking a lot.

Simple

Complex

Compound

Simple, Compound Or Complex

5. He came to Sydney to look for work.

Simple

Complex

Compound

6. My father was bitten by a dog last week.

Simple

Complex

Compound

7. I don't know what I should do.

Simple

Complex

Compound

8. I neither smoke nor drink.

Simple

Complex

Compound

Simple, Compound Or Complex

9. I didn't sing because she was there.

Simple

Complex

Compound

10. You can stay or quit.

Simple

Complex

Compound

11. If it helps, I will lend you some money.

Simple

Complex

Compound

12. I knocked again and again but nobody opened the door.

Simple

Complex

Compound

Simple, Compound Or Complex

Answers

1. We went out in spite of the rain. (Simple)
2. Do you think she is ready? (Complex)
3. I am anxious to contact him. (Simple)
4. I noticed that he seemed to be drinking a lot. (Complex)
5. He came to Sydney to look for work. (Simple)
6. My father was bitten by a dog last week. (Simple)
7. I don't know what I should do. (Complex)
8. I neither smoke nor drink. (Compound)
9. I didn't sing because she was there. (Complex)
10. You can stay or quit. (Compound)
11. If it helps, I will lend you some money. (Complex)
12. I knocked again and again but nobody opened the door. (Compound)