

Simple Present vs. Present Continuous Tense

Fill in the blanks.

1. The shirt fine, but the trousers are small.

fits

is fitting

2. She at the screen.

looks

is looking

Either could be used here

3. The whole family a leisurely walk in the park now.

is enjoying

Simple Present vs. Present Continuous Tense

enjoys

4. She to be a perfectly sane person.

appears

is appearing

5. It like you are no longer interested in me.

looks

is looking

6. I the fabric to see if it is rough.

feel

Simple Present vs. Present Continuous Tense

am feeling

7. We a burglar alarm.

fit

are fitting

8. Both my children playing football.

enjoy

are enjoying

9. She in a new play.

appears

is appearing

Simple Present vs. Present Continuous Tense

10. He upset.

seems

is seeming

11. What you
at?

do, look

are, looking

Either could be used here

12. This color me.

does not suit

is not suiting

Simple Present vs. Present Continuous Tense

Answers

The shirt fits fine, but the trousers are small.

She is looking at the screen.

The whole family is enjoying a leisurely walk in the sunny morning.

She appears to be a perfectly sane person,

It looks like you are no longer interested in me.

I am feeling the fabric to see if it is rough.

We are fitting a burglar alarm.

Both my children enjoy playing football.

She is appearing in a new play.

He seems upset.

What are you looking at?

This color does not suit me.