Tenses Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. The ice will melt when the sun ……………………. on it.
   - shines
   - is shining
   - shines

   - die
   - am dying
   - died

3. He confessed that he …………………………. the money.
Tenses Exercise

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>has taken</th>
<th>took</th>
<th>had taken</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

4. If you break the law of the land, you
........................................

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>will punish</th>
<th>will be punished</th>
<th>would be punished</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

5. It is difficult to imagine how the early man
........................................ without fire.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>live</th>
<th>lived</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
Tenses Exercise

6. This house .................................. with rats.

- has lived
- is infesting
- is infested
- has infested

7. The thief .................................... refuge in a cave.

- took
- take
- have taken

8. Millions of Jews .......................... in the Nazi
9. The impertinent boy …………………………. to his room.

impersonates
Tenses Exercise

impersonate

has impersonated

11. It is imperative that we ......................... the police.
called have called call

is fading fades
has faded
Tenses Exercise

Answers

The ice will melt when the sun shines on it.
My children live abroad. I am dying to meet them.
He confessed that he had taken the money.
If you break the law of the land, you will be imprisoned.
It is difficult to imagine how the early man lived without fire.
This house is infested with rats.
The thief took refuge in a cave.
Millions of Jews perished in the Nazi holocaust.
The impertinent boy was sent to his room.
Drug dealers sometimes impersonate drug addicts.
It is imperative that we call the police.
Physical beauty fades with age.