Transforming negative sentences into the affirmative

3. No sooner had the thief run out of the jail than the guard fired at him.

4. As soon as I reached the station, the train left. OR Hardly (or scarcely) had I reached the station when the train left.

5. As soon as the umpire gave the batsman out, the crowd rushed on to the field. OR Hardly (or scarcely) had the umpire given the batsman out when the crowd rushed on to the field.

6. As soon as the thief ran out of the jail, the guard fired at him. OR Hardly (or scarcely) had the thief run out of the jail when the guard fired at him.

Notes

It is wrong to use when instead of than in sentences with no sooner. Also note that the auxiliary did or had must come immediately after no sooner.

It is wrong to use than instead of when in sentences with hardly or scarcely.
