Transitive vs. Intransitive

State whether the verbs in the following sentences are transitive or intransitive.

1. She has a pet dog.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Transitive</th>
<th>Intransitive</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2. You never give me any help.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Transitive</th>
<th>Intransitive</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

3. The girl talked to the boy.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Transitive</th>
<th>Intransitive</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Transitive vs. Intransitive

4. I have found the answer.

- Transitive
- Intransitive

5. The dog was barking loudly.

- Transitive
- Intransitive

6. You are barking up the wrong tree.

- Transitive
- Intransitive

7. The cat sat on the table.
Transitive vs. Intransitive

8. She put the books on the table.

9. Please get the cat off the piano.

10. I learned my lesson the hard way.
Transitive vs. Intransitive

11. He spoke intelligently.

12. She danced merrily into the room.

Answers

She has a pet dog. (Transitive)
You never give me any help. (Transitive)
The girl talked to the boy. (Intransitive)
I have found the answer. (Transitive)
The dog was barking loudly. (Intransitive)
Transitive vs. Intransitive

You are barking up the wrong tree. (Transitive)
The cat sat on the table. (Intransitive)
She put the books on the table. (Transitive)
Please get the cat off the piano. (Transitive)
I learned my lesson the hard way. (Transitive)
He spoke intelligently. (Intransitive)
She danced merrily into the room. (Intransitive)