

Verb + prepositions exercise

Many verbs require prepositions before their objects. Note that the preposition is dropped when there is no object.

Complete the following sentences using appropriate prepositions.

1. Why are you looking ..... me like that?

on
at over

2. I would like you to listen ..... this.

with
at
to

3. Let us talk ..... your new projects.

with about
for

4. I ran ..... James at Victoria Station

Verb + prepositions exercise

yesterday.

into
at
for

5. How long have you been married ..... her?

with
to
for

6. I am thinking ..... studying engineering.

with
of
at

7. A week after the accident he died
..... his injuries.

from
with
for

Verb + prepositions exercise

8. I half believe ..... life after death.

in
at
with

9. I must apologize ..... disturbing you.

for
about
to

10. He left the firm because he didn't agree ..... their sales policy.

with
at
to

Answers

1. Why are you looking at me like that?
2. I would like you to listen to this.

Verb + prepositions exercise

3. Let us talk about your new projects.
4. I ran into James at Victoria Station yesterday.
5. How long have you been married to her.
6. I am thinking of studying engineering.
7. A week after the accident he died from his injuries.
8. I half believe in life after death.
9. I must apologize for disturbing you.
10. He left the firm because he didn't agree with their sales policy.