

Verbs Exercise

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate verb form.

1. He with an accident yesterday.

met

has met

had met

2. She with her parents since January.

is staying

has been staying

had been staying

3. It matter.

Verbs Exercise

don't doesn't hasn't

4. Where all this while?

were you have you been

are you

5. She a bookstall in the town.

runs

is running

run

Verbs Exercise

6. I a novel at the moment.

read

am reading

have been reading

7. There is no point in closing the barn door after the horse

bolts

bolted

has bolted

8. As soon as I the window, the cat jumped out.

opened

Verbs Exercise

open

have opened

9. He his studies before he went abroad.

finished

has finished

had finished

10. He in Mumbai for six months when the pandemic hit the world.

was working

has been working

had been working

Verbs Exercise

11. Don't call them now. They
..... lunch.

are having

will have had

will be having

12. We the roof by evening.

will finish

would finish

will have finished

Answers

He met with an accident yesterday.

She has been staying with her parents since January.

It doesn't matter.

Where have you been all this while?

Verbs Exercise

She runs a bookstall in the town.

I am reading a detective novel at the moment.

There is no point in closing the barn door after the horse has bolted.

As soon as I opened the window, the cat jumped out.

He had finished his studies before he went abroad.

He had been working in Mumbai for six months when the pandemic hit the world.

Don't call them now. They will be having lunch.

We will have finished the roof by evening.