

Verbs With And Without Prepositions

Fill in the blanks.

1. Have you the fee yet?

paid

paid for

Either could be used here

2. Samuel my drinks.

paid

paid for

Either could be used here

3. They the house but they could not find the weapon.

searched searched for

Either could be used here

4. What are you in my room?

searching searching for

Either could be used here

Verbs With And Without Prepositions

5. When we the church everybody stopped talking.

- entered
- entered into
- entered at

6. We have just an agreement with them.

- entered
- entered into
- Either could be used here

7. They spent the whole afternoon music and movies.

- discussing
- discussing over
- discussing about

8. We had a long money.

- discussion
- discussion about
- discussion of

Verbs With And Without Prepositions

9. Don't money.

ask me

ask me for

Either could be used here

10. Don't her her name.

ask

ask for

Either could be used here

11. You must not a word he says.

believe

believe in

Either could be used here

12. Do you life after death?

believe

believe in

Either could be used here

Verbs With And Without Prepositions

Answers

1. Have you paid the fee yet?
2. Samuel paid for my drinks.
3. They searched the house but they could not find the weapon.
4. What are you searching for in my room?
5. When we entered the church everybody stopped talking.
6. We have just entered into an agreement with them.
7. They spent the whole afternoon discussing music and movies.
8. We had a long discussion about money.
9. Don't ask me for money.
10. Don't ask her her name.
11. You must not believe a word he says.
12. Do you believe in life after death?