

Vocabulary Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. The saint was painted with a
..... over his head.

- halo
- hallo
- halow

2. Prices were during the sale.

- halfed
- halved
- Either could be used here

3. Only a of people attended the party.

- handful
- handfull

4. The man his head in shame.

- hung

Vocabulary Exercise

hanged

Either could be used here

5. They the picture over the mantle.

hung

hanged

6. The terrorist was at dawn.

hung

hanged

7. It rained yesterday.

hard hardly

8. That was the way to greet a friend.

hard

hardly

Vocabulary Exercise

9. Don't make important decisions

.....

haste hastily

10. I warned him but he me no heed.

payed paid

11. people have the most accidents.

Heedless
Headless
Heedly

12. She was given a reception that befits a

.....

heroine heroin

Vocabulary Exercise

Answers

The saint was painted with a halo over his head.

Prices were halved during the sale.

Only a handful of people attended the party.

The man hung his head in shame.

They hung the picture over the mantle.

The terrorist was hanged at dawn.

It rained hard yesterday.

That was hardly the way to greet a friend.

Don't make important decisions hastily.

I warned him but he paid me no heed.

Heedless people have the most accidents.

She was given a reception that befits a heroine.