

Vocabulary Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. Be sure to get a electrician for the job.

competitive

competent

competence

2. Ever since he got a raise, he has been too to work hard.

compliant

competent

complacent

3. The young surgeon showed exceptional

Vocabulary Exercise

competence

compliance

competition

4. A athlete must have a spirit.

competent

competitive

complacent

5. Travel can be an excellent to one's education.

complement

compliment

Vocabulary Exercise

6. with the traffic laws is necessary for safe driving.

Compliance

Complacency

Composure

7. The hostess received glowing on the dinner.

complements

compliments

8. Please give my to your parents.

complements

compliments

Vocabulary Exercise

9. The captain remained throughout the raging storm.

composed

censured

contrived

10. The speaker retained his throughout the heckling.

composition

composure

complacency

11. The teacher had no of the boy's problems at home.

apprehension

Vocabulary Exercise

comprehension

compilation

12. The pregnant woman had a urge for pickles.

compulsory

compulsion

compulsive

Answers

Be sure to get a competent electrician for the job.

Ever since he got a raise, he has been too complacent to work hard.

The young surgeon showed exceptional competence.

A athlete must have a competitive spirit.

Travel can be an excellent complement to one's education.

Compliance with the traffic laws is necessary for safe driving.

The hostess received glowing compliments on the dinner.

Please give my compliments to your parents.

The captain remained composed throughout the raging storm.

Vocabulary Exercise

The speaker retained his composure throughout the heckling.

The teacher had no comprehension of the boy's problems at home.

The pregnant woman had a compulsive urge for pickles.