

Vocabulary Exercise

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate word or phrase.

1. The speaker's voice put me to sleep.

monotony
monotonous

2. Two sharks crossed the bow of the boat.

monstrous
monstrosity
monster

3. Speaking down to the people was a mistake.

monumental monument
monumentary

4. Bicycling is good exercise;, it does not pollute the air.

moreover

Vocabulary Exercise

furthermore

in addition

All of the above

5. It is obvious from his ruthless behavior that he has no

moral

morale

morality

6. The of the story is that money can't buy happiness.

moral

morale

morality

7. After the defeat, the army's was low.

moral

morale

Either could be used here

Vocabulary Exercise

8. everyone enjoyed the party.

Almost

Most

Either could be used here

9. I will over your proposal and let you know.

mull

mule

10. A of problems delayed the construction project.

multiple

multitude

11. He is on the subject of faith.

mute

moot

mutt

Vocabulary Exercise

12. Her was obvious from the way she told everyone her life story.

naive

naivety

Answers

1. The speaker's monotonous voice put me to sleep.
2. Two monstrous sharks crossed the bow of the boat.
3. Speaking down to the people was a monumental mistake.
4. Bicycling is good exercise; moreover / in addition / furthermore, it does not pollute the air.
5. It is obvious from his ruthless behaviour that he has no morality.
6. The moral of the story is that money can't buy happiness.
7. After the defeat, the army's morale was low.
8. Almost everyone enjoyed the party.
9. I will mull over your proposal and let you know.
10. A multitude of problems delayed the construction project.
11. He is mute on the subject of faith.
12. Her naivety was obvious from the way she told everyone her life story.