

Words Confused Exercise

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate word or phrase.

1. I like everyone you.

except exempt expect

2. I him to call in the evening.

expect except accept

3. The critics the director's new movie.

commended commented

4. Cyclists can use the railway tracks if they want to.

misused disused abused

Words Confused Exercise

5. A greedy man often his friends.

- disuses
- misuses
- abuses

6. Her biography is so slow that it is almost

- illegible
- unreadable
- Either could be used here

7. Mirrors give an of more space in a room.

- illusion
- allusion

8. The teacher made an to Bible.

- illusion
- allusion

Words Confused Exercise

9. Prices are rising raising

10. The plays of Oscar Wilde are famous for their
.....

epigrams epilogues

11. The student did research before writing the term paper.

exhaustive exhausting exhausted

12. The children were after the day's play.

exhausted
exhaustive exhausting

Words Confused Exercise

Answers

1. I like everyone except you.
2. I expect him to call in the evening.
3. The critics commended the director's new movie.
4. Cyclists can use the disused railway tracks if they want to.
5. A greedy man often misuses his friends.
6. Her biography is so slow that it is almost unreadable.
7. Mirrors give an illusion of more space in a room.
8. The teacher made an allusion to Bible.
9. Prices are rising.
10. The plays of Oscar Wilde are famous for their epigrams.
11. The student did exhaustive research before writing the term paper.
12. The children were exhausted after the day's play.